

Your agents.

Joseph & Jihee Lee.

Joseph and Jihee are an energetic husband and wife team located in sunny Tauranga. Together their dedication and honest professionalism will give you piece of mind that they will work with you to achieve your goals. Their attention to detail is paramount with accurate and timely feedback relayed to their clients to make the journey from selling or buying a home, smooth and stress free as possible.

Joseph and Jihee's combined knowledge and listening skills are effective, alongside Joseph's background in sales. Informing clients of the important facets of their property whether it be location, amenities, build type, site plan, style or even a combination. This duo team will design a detailed plan and timeline that works for you to make your next step on the property ladder stress free and as smooth as possible.

As a team they have learnt to leverage their expertise in the fields of communication and connectivity through local communities and schools in the area. As this family duo team provides a custom marketing services approach to marketing your property, using the latest technology and modern marketing techniques, personalised and tailored specifically towards each unique property. It's all about reaching potential buyers in real-time through a range of mediums e.g. Facebook, top real estate websites, print media just to name a few.

Understanding buyers is key as most are very sophisticated with the platforms available to them, naturally expecting immediate and detailed property information. This team meets these needs by building mutual relationships and being proactive with all communication, whether that be in English or Korean.

Advantage Realty is part of the largest real estate organisation in NZ and Joseph and Jihee are supported by a large sales team and dedicated management team working alongside them to achieve an outstanding result for you in the shortest time possible, whether you are buying or selling a property.

“Teamwork breeds success in all aspects, communication and understanding whether its sports teams, schools or the community, being able to complement one another to deliver unparalleled service allowing you to achieving your goals”, says Joseph.

Don't hesitate to team up with Joseph and Jihee for a stress free real estate experience.

Give Joseph and Jihee a call to discuss your future property prospects.